Consent to use and disclosure/Data Protection Acts, 1988 and 2003 and Section 71 of the Credit Union Act, 1997 (as amended)

I understand that under the Data Protection Acts, 1988 and 2003 (the "DPA"), my consent may be required for the credit union to process personal data that it may have in its possession concerning me (including disclosure to third parties). I note that this personal data may include sensitive personal data, such as data about my health, within the meaning of the DPA, the processing of which requires my explicit consent. I also understand that under Section 71 of the Credit Union Act, 1997 (as amended), the credit union, subject to exceptions listed in the Section, shall not disclose or permit to be disclosed, without my consent, any information that concerns an account or transaction of mine with the credit union.

Giving your consent

For the purpose of assessing my application for a loan and generally for administering and monitoring any accounts I have with the credit union:

I consent:

- (i) to you seeking information concerning applications for loans and my credit history from the date of my original consent from any other credit union and for that purpose you may disclose any relevant information in this loan application to any such other credit union;
- (ii) to any other credit union disclosing information to this credit union concerning applications for loans and my credit history from the date of my original consent with any such other credit union;
- (iii) to you disclosing any information in my application or in respect of any account or transaction of mine with the credit union from the date of my original consent to authorised officers or employees of the Irish League of Credit Unions for the purpose of fulfilling requirements under the Savings Protection Scheme if such a scheme is operated on behalf of the credit union by the Irish League of Credit Unions; and
- (iv) to you disclosing any information in my application or in respect of any account or transaction of mine with the credit union authorised officers or employees of ECCU Assurance Company Limited for the purpose of provision of insurance cover, which may apply, subject to the terms and conditions of cover provided by ECCU Assurance Company Limited to the credit union as policyholder.
- (v) to the processing of any information relating to me, either contained in this form or any other form or application, for the purpose of assessing this application and administering any accounts I maintain with the credit union.

Deposit Guarantee Scheme – Depositor Information Sheet

| Basic information about the protection of your eligible deposits | |
|--|---|
| Eligible deposits in Boyle Credit Union are protected by: | the Deposit Guarantee Scheme ("DGS") ⁽¹⁾ |
| Limit of protection: | €100,000 per depositor per credit institution ⁽²⁾ |
| If you have more eligible deposits at the same credit institution: | All your eligible deposits at the same credit institution are 'aggregated' and the total is subject to the limit of €100,000 ⁽²⁾ |
| If you have a joint account with other person(s): | The limit of €100,000 applies to each depositor separately ⁽³⁾ |
| Reimbursement period in case of credit institution's failure: | 20 working days ⁽⁴⁾ |
| Currency of reimbursement: | Euro or, for branches of Irish banks operating in another member state of the EEA, the currency of that member state. |

Additional information

(1) Scheme responsible for the protection of your deposit

Your deposit is covered by a statutory deposit guarantee scheme. If insolvency should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to €100,000.

(2) General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a credit institution is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by the DGS. This repayment covers at maximum €100,000 per person per credit institution. This means that all eligible deposits at the same credit institution are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance, a depositor holds a savings account with €90,000 and a current account with €20,000, he or she will only be repaid €100,000.

(3) Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of €100,000 applies to each depositor. However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of €100,000.

In some cases eligible deposits which are categorised as "temporary high balances" are protected above €100,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. These are eligible deposits relating to certain events which include:

- (a) certain transactions relating to the purchase, sale or equity release by the depositor in relation to a private residential property;
- (b) sums paid to the depositor in respect of insurance benefits, personal injuries, disability and incapacity benefits, wrongful conviction, unfair dismissal, redundancy, and retirement benefits;
- (c) the depositor's marriage, judicial separation, dissolution of civil partnership, and divorce;
- (d) sums paid to the depositor in respect of benefits payable on death; claims for compensation in respect of a person's death or a legacy or distribution from the estate of a deceased person.

More information can be obtained at www.depositguarantee.ie

(4) Reimbursement

The responsible deposit guarantee scheme is:

Deposit Guarantee Scheme, Central Bank of Ireland, PO Box 11517, Spencer Dock, North Wall Quay, Dublin 1.
Tel: 1890-777777. Email: info@depositguarantee.ie. Website: www.depositguarantee.ie.

It will repay your eligible deposits (up to €100,000) within 20 working days until 31 December 2018; within 15 working days from 1 January 2019 until 31 December 2020; within 10 working days from 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2023; and within 7 days from 1 January 2024 onwards, save where specific exceptions apply.

Where the repayable amount cannot be made available within seven working days depositors will be given access to an appropriate amount of their covered deposits to cover the cost of living within five working days of a request. Access to the appropriate amount will only be made on the basis of data provided by the credit institution. If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should contact the deposit guarantee scheme.

Other important information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your credit institution will also inform you on request whether certain products are covered or not. If deposits are eligible, the credit institution shall also confirm this on the statement of account.
